CAMERAS IN THE COURTROOM

The Supreme Court issued Court Order M.R. 2634 today allowing the use of cameras in the courtrooms of Circuit Courts in Illinois on an experimental basis, effective immediately.

Chief Judge Victoria Rossetti of Lake County stated, "The Circuit Judges of the 19th Judicial Circuit will be reviewing the policy and discussing its application in Lake County to determine if it is appropriate for the Circuit. If the decision reached is that Lake County apply, an application to the Supreme Court for approval to provide extended media coverage of judicial proceedings, on an experimental basis, shall be forwarded to the attention of the Clerk of the Supreme Court."
